KOORALBYN GOLF CLUB

A pretty disappointing turnout for this game, with only 12 members making the trek to Kooralbyn. Can't blame the weather, it was a cracking day. Anyhow, the game was played as a Single Stroke and also included the Final of the Match Play between Daniel Robinson and Johnny Royston.

MATCH PLAY

Johnny Royston and Dale McKenzie had to battle it out in Sudden Death to see who would then end up playing Daniel Robinson in the Match Play Final.

Johnny overcame Dale on the first Play Off hole and the battled Daniel to an 18 hole tie.

So now Daniel and Johnny will replay their final at McLeod.

NEXT GAME

Our next game is at Sandy Gallop on 26 July with a 7.00am tee time.

The format is Single Stableford with the Green Jacket on the line.

It is an all cart event, and as usual please be there 30 mins before the designated tee time.

TAPPYS NRL TALK

Here we are, 19 completed rounds of the 2026 NRL season complete, and what a season it has been. With no team from last years top 4 featuring in this years top 8 as yet, we have an interesting finish to the regular season coming in the next few weeks.

Although the consistent Panthers and Roosters sit in the top 4, we also have the inconsistent Sharks in 4th and the surprise package of the season, the mighty Warriors firmly entrenched in 2nd place.

The Knights, Rabbitohs, Cowboys and although thrashed 66 nil this past weekend, the Dolphins round out the top 8.

Another talking point of the season, is the dramatic turn around of the defending Premiers.

The Brisbane Broncos have taken a major fall from grace currently sitting in 13th position on the ladder. And it even saw Ray Thompson hand yours truly, Mike Tapp a crisp $50 note, as Ray conceded that the Broncos will not finish higher than the Warriors on the table.

Cheers Ray.

Still with an outside chance of making the finals, Storm, Tigers, Sea Eagles. Bulldogs and the Raiders, but there is a lot of improvement to be made.
