NEXT GAME

Our next game is to be played at Beaudesert on 13 July with a 8.00am start time. It will be played as a Single Stroke game and will also incorporate the 3rd round of Matchplay. In the A grade match we have the Rising Star Eric (Fluff) Nugent taking on the Reigning, Defending, Undisputed 2024 Champion Mike (Tappy) Tapp. Contesting the B Grade Match is the Bearded Wonder and 2 time Green Jacket winner Mick Scott, taking on the relatively unknown skillset of Richard (El Presidente) Kemp. Good luck to all players.

GENERAL INFORMATION

We are in the process of preparing for our Major Raffle and have decided on doing a wheelbarrow and alcohol package as our main prize this year. Jerry has kindly offered to purchase the wheelbarrow, but are hoping to get some donations of alcohol from our members to be put in the wheelbarrow. Bottles of wine, a six pack of beer or some RTD's. Any donations would be much appreciated. Remember, these fundraisers help the club with keeping our Green fee prices down as well as the purchase of golf balls, our free games and other miscellaneous things that keep the club running. Any donations can be handed to a committee member or to Jerry. Thanx.

Also, we have been getting quite a few comments about members hitting up on groups in front. We had a very close call at Oxley. Please guys, be aware of the players in front or on other fairways for that matter. Remember to yell FORE if you hit a wayward shot, but a ball going past a player in front of you at head height is inexcusable. Its not going to make your game go any quicker.

TAPPYS NRL TALK

Here we are, the segment everyone has been waiting for (especially you Bronco ##$#@$#) Well the Bulldogs have finally been knocked off the top spot after a close loss to the resurgent Panthers.

The Premier favourites, Canberra, have secured top place after defeating the Knights while the Sharks seem to be swimming in reverse after another loss, going down to the 3rd place Storm. The ref decided early on to donate 2 points to the 5th place Brisbane Broncos at the expense of the Mighty Warriors. The Warriors, while definitely not playing their best football of the season were let down by some dubious decisions in this reporters unbiased state of mind. Even so the Warriors remain comfortably in the top 4.
